Local Artists Gather for One-Night Show “In Studio : A Group Exhibition” to Build Community and Showcase Denver’s Talent

[Broomfield, CO] – Eight Denver-based artists will join together for a one-night, artist-run show that spans abstraction to contemporary realism, all set in a relaxed, welcoming environment. Taking place on November 8, 2024, this gathering features Christy Lynn Seving, Missy Borden, Elissa Quist, Nick Kremske, Eric Wall, Josh Davy, Ron Zito, and Sarah Starling—talented artists invited specifically because of their inspiring work, even though many of them have never met each other before. The event is both an exhibition and an opportunity to build connections within Denver’s art community.

The show transforms 2400 Industrial Ln, Suite 2700B, Broomfield, CO 80020 into a unique gallery-like space where visitors can chat with the artists and see the work up close. Whether drawn to expressive, abstract pieces or contemporary realism, attendees will find something to enjoy, and those who purchase artwork can take their pieces home that night.

“With the current uncertainties in the art scene, we took the initiative to make something happen on our own,” said Eric Wall, the event’s organizer. “We’re hosting this because we believe in the power of bringing people together through art, to build a stronger, more connected community here in Denver.”
